Grand Pacific Resort Management Promotes Guy Hall To Newly Formed Position of Area Manager

CARLSBAD, CA (March 1, 2010) -- Grand Pacific Resort Management, a privately owned timeshare vacation ownership management company located in Carlsbad, CA has promoted Guy Hall to the newly created position of Area Manager. In this new role, Guy will be responsible for the day to day operations at Carlsbad Seapointe Resort as well as have direct oversight of Coronado Beach Resort.

According to Nigel Lobo, Vice President of Grand Pacific Resort Management, "As General Manager at Carlsbad Seapointe, Guy has taken the resort to new heights, both in occupancy as well as guest satisfaction, once again earning RCI Gold Crown status for the resort. He has mentored and developed a solid team with the 'all hands on deck' resort credo the Seapointe team developed and has consistently implemented creative programs and activities."

In addition to new role as Area Manager, Guy Hall will play a key role in identifying acquisition and management contract candidates to add to Grand Pacific Resort Management portfolio of resorts.

Grand Pacific Resort Management is one of the oldest and largest vacation ownership companies based in California. Servicing over 45,000 owner-families every year, it manages over 1,000 units in California and Hawaii. For more information visit www.gprmgt.com or call Sharrie McIntosh at 760-431-8500.
